Good morning everybody! It may be a bit gloomy, damp, and chilly outside, but the love, the faith, the truth, the power of God through His Spirit on the inside brings peace and joy, energizing the totality of divine powers in you as you experience the purposeful good will of The Son of God, exceeding physical reality and human knowledge. The Life of The Christ is alive in you! Feel better? Yeah, me too!

And Jesus was the focus of our attention yesterday, "in the volume of the book", in "the roll of the scroll", it is written of Him, "I have come to perform Your will Oh God," (Ps 40:7&8, Heb 10:7) As He, "went about doing good and healing all those oppressed of the enemy", (Acts 10:38), as He was "speaking of things secret from the foundation of the world," (Mt 13:35), "proclaiming liberty throughout the land to all the inhabitants thereof", (Lev 25:9&10), being "The Lamb of God Who takes away the sin of the world,"(Jn 1:29). He was doing His job. He was fulfilling all of the things in the Law, The Prophets, and The Psalms that were written of Him. (Lk 24:44) As we said yesterday, the Scripture, the Life and Power in those "God-breathed words" directed His path from before He was born. How amazing! And yet, however difficult it may be to comprehend, the same thing is true of you!

Yesterday, sort of in passing, I mentioned the 139th Psalm. (Actually I mistakenly called it the 133rd Psalm.) Anyway, I was alluding to a scripture that has fascinated and inspired me for many, many years. It's like the transition from Jesus to us. You can almost see and hear, even feel, the words forming The Son describing His perfect unity with The Father. Then, as you get to the 15th & 16th verses you read, "My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth." And, "Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them." Now walk with me.

I used the King James Version purposefully. If you look at some translations you get a different picture, as if what is being described is simply the body being formed and His days being laid out before they happened. And that's cool, and of course true, but I believe there's a whole other level to this mystery, and that's you and me.

The "substance" was taking form in the lowest parts of the earth, that would be Sheol. Jesus was being resurrected. And although not yet being formed, all of the members of His body were being written, even though none of them were yet "born". This is painting a picture of the members of the Body of Christ, all of them! You and me and everyone, all those written in The Lamb's Book of Life! Are you getting it? Do you see it? Are you experiencing the power of it? Whoa! I am, again!

Yes, "God has given Him The Name that is over, (not above, huper, over), every name, in order that en The Name of Jesus every knee of the heavens, of things earthly, and things of the underworld should bow, and every tongue speak out in agreement that Jesus Christ is Lord, the very reflection of God The Father!" (Php 2:9-11, Enhanced) Wow! Maybe we need to take a breath, but we're not through!

"...and we are fulfilled en Him, Who is the head of all principality and authority..." Through the knowledge of Him we are given exceeding great and precious promises so that we have become partakers of His divine nature. (Pe 1:2-4) You, me, all of us, are the members of His Body that were formed out from, through, the power of His resurrection! In the volume of the book, in the roll of the scroll, it is also written of us too!

Love never fails!
