Happy Monday to you! Yesterday we began with a follow-up from last week, taking some time to address the hoopla on social media and the legacy media touting the idea of a new era of government “where working people have control”. Actually, there’s nothing new about it. So we took some time to expose the lie simply by looking at the platform of the Democratic Socialists of America.

Their new form of government would abolish the Executive branch of government, which is elected by all of the people, and replace it with a “Head of Government” selected out from the legislature. They propose to do away with the Senate, whose members are elected by the people of each state, leaving only one legislative body as the sole governing power because they would also abolish the Supreme Court, whose members are nominated by The President and confirmed by The Senate. The result? Total control of the entire Federal Government would be in the hands of a single legislative body who would select the “Head of Government” out from itself once a single election of the people takes place. “No kings?” But it doesn’t stop there!

The Cabinet Secretaries who oversee the various departments that make up the government would be appointed by the person given power by this single legislative body. No check on power once “the people” elect the one person from their area. No balance, just power!

So why would we take time to talk about this on a Sunday morning? Wisdom! To see God’s wisdom given to men who, after a tough couple of hot months in Philadelphia, made the decision to begin each day in prayer after Benjamin Franklin reminded them that, in his long years of experience, he had become convinced that, “God governs in the affairs of men.”

God’s divine wisdom conceived in them a government like no other, consisting of three separate branches, each one with a specific role but so remarkably formed that they keep one another in check. Congress makes laws, but only when both houses agree. The Executive, who is also Commander-in-Chief, executes the laws, running the government and the military. The Court then ensures that these actions are done properly, and most importantly, that the rights of the people are not overrun by the government. Amazing! This was something never seen before and is now imitated in many countries around the world. Like we said last week, we were “conceived in liberty” by God, the expert on Liberty, with Jesus as its most perfect expression!

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the meek. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, and to announce The Year of The Lord’s favor,” (Lk 4:18-19, Enhanced version) This is the essence of “the promises”.

Jesus said, “I’m sending the promise of My Father upon you.” (Lk 24:49) Paul wrote, “Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law... that the blessing of Abraham might come into the Gentiles en Christ Jesus in order that we might receive the promise of The Spirit through faith.” (Ga 3:13-14) “Redemption” is “to be released”. Released is to be made free, and, “Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.” (2Cor 3:17) And, “Therefore if The Son sets you free, you shall be free indeed.” (Jn 8:36)...

All of this is provided to us in “promises”! Watch this. The Father fulfilled His promise to Abraham by sending Jesus. Jesus fulfilled His promise to us by sending The Holy Ghost. And The Holy Ghost fulfills all of the promises given to the Son by giving them to us because now we are one! What promises? All things, everything, concerning or all about Life! And we inherit these promises through our inner response to God, faith and long lasting passion or enthusiasm. Not growing weary, not fainting, but being energized by the power of His reflection being shined into us. Life and Liberty out from The Promises! Hallelujah!

Love never fails!
